

ECLECTIC COLLECTOR AUCTION 13 MAY 2023 SALEROOM NOTICE: ADDENDA & CORRIGENDA

Withdrawn lots: 2, 3, 11, 12, 106, 115, 146, 159, 196, 249, 336A, 337A, 524, 581.

Lot 1. The National Museum of Ireland have 7 specimens of this type.

Lot 39. Estimate should read €500-€700

Lot 41. Comprises 12 pages(including address panel) from a 15 page letter (including address panel). The three missing pages include O'Connell's signing off but his signature is present on the address panel.

Lot 123. Should read: 1900 Association of Municipal Corporations badge. Gilt enamel badge A.M.C. DUBLIN 1900 with Dublin City three castles motif at centre, with surround of shamrock surmounted by a harp, made by Hopkins, Dublin, in original box of issue. Rare

Lot 139. Should read: 1901-1910 Distinguished Conduct Medal renamed to an NCO in The Cape Mounted Rifles (South Africa). Edward VII issue, renamed to SERGT MAJOR C. SUNDBERG C.M.R., who was not entitled to it. Other Notes: Sundberg's record states "he was a habitual drunkard!"

Lot 149 - Translation of the note: "Very Happy to have found French Sympathetic people at the Hotel Dieu November 1, 1899"

Lot 161. Provenance: Tom Clarke; His widow, Kathleen Clarke; By descent; Clarke Family sale, Adam's, 12 April 2006, lot 317; Private collection.

Lot 193. This is the second edition (1917).

Lot 228 and 229 - the images are transposed in the printed catalogue

Lot 282. Should read: Complete badge and furniture on a 6 panel helmet (probably English). Standard issue for the DMP was 4 panel. Scarce.

Lot 392. The pistols are pinfire.

Lot 467. Measurements are 9 x 9 inches

Lot 543 - Small Faces

Lot 618. The quantity is 70.

EXTRA LOTS:

154A

circa 1910: 'The Right Flag In The Right Place' Roscommon Home Rule advertisement poster

An extremely interesting and unusual poster showing a green flag with harp flying above the Irish Houses of Parliament on College Green and titled "The Right Flag In The Right Place - and the right place to call for suits, dresses, millinery, hats, caps and ties is F. Connolly & Co's Strokestown." 30 by 20in. (76.2 by 50.8cm)

Very good, a few slight edge tears.

€400-€600